SPACE IN TWO CITIES: DETROIT & SHENYANG

CHCI-CCKF 2019 Summer Institute

A partner program supported by the Consortium of Humanities Centers and Institutes and the Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange

June 22 (Sat.) – July 6 (Sat.), 2019

Wayne State University

Come to explore the relation between people and their spaces from different corners of the globe!

Highlighted Activities:
- Skype conversation between residents of Detroit and Shenyang, 6.28 (Fri.) & 7.2 (Tue.), 7-9PM
- Old Chinatown Tour, 6.29 (Sat.), 2-6PM
- Movies on Detroit & Shenyang

Space in Two Cities

6.22 11-12:30PM The Singing of the Song in Song Dynasty Cities and Its Cultural Significance (Ming Zhang, Peking University, China)
5-6:30PM Negotiating Socialist Industrial Heritage in Post-1978 China: The Case of Harbin (Tze-Ian Sang, Michigan State University)

6.23 11-12:30PM City and Obesity (Jian Wang, China Central Normal University, China)

6.24 5-6:30PM Conceptualizing and Representing the City: Detroit in Literature and Cinema (Alina Cherry, Wayne State University)

6.25 5-6:30PM Obesity and Space in Detroit and Shenyang (Bo Shen, Wayne State University)

6.26 5-6:30PM The Significance of Naming a Space: The Case of the Studio Name as My Name (Yunshuang Zhang, Wayne State University)

6.27 5-6:30PM Aging, Gentrification and Understandings of Space: Understanding Displacement in Detroit (Tam Perry, Wayne State University)

6.28 5-6:30PM Crime and Crime Control in Detroit and Shenyang (Yuning Wu, Wayne State University)

6.29 11-12:30PM Rustbelt Newtowns (Xuefei Ren, Michigan State University)

7.1 5-6:30PM Migration, Education, and Space (Min Yu, Wayne State University)

7.2 5-6:30PM Space and Direction in Language (Haiyong Liu, Wayne State University)

7.3 5-6:30PM Controlling the Military Space in China (Yumin Sheng, Wayne State University)

7.5 5-6:30PM Chinese Garden – Inspiration & Recreation (Hui-shu Lee, UCLA)

7.6 11-12:30PM Urban Historical Archaeology in Detroit: Documenting the City’s Ethnic Layers and Erasures (Krysta Ryzewski, Wayne State University)

3-4:30PM Contributions from Physics to Our Understanding and Experience of Space (Caroline Morgan, Wayne State University)

Institute organizers:
Haiyong Liu (CMLLC), haiyong@wayne.edu | Yunshuang Zhang (CMLLC), yunshuang@wayne.edu | Min Yu (COE), minyu@wayne.edu